

R&H

A

The knowledge and skills acquired in this course are essential for the architectural profession. This course covers: cultural, political, and social history of architecture.