

College Council

Committee Overview

College Council is the central governing body at West Valley College. Membership represents college constituency groups in support of planning. College Council plays a central role in defining college action, outcomes, and innovation to

